Duke Zhao, a senior creative designer. He has 15 years experience, including 13 years of sanitary product design. The sanitary product design includes the whole line of sanitary products (a series of hardware products, such as closets, bath cabinets, faucets, showers, bathtubs, hardware pendants, etc.). The sanitary industry is a huge integrated system, which ultimately serves the use experience of consumers as the benchmark. The grasp of every detail of sanitary products and the direction of putting them on the market will determine the value generated in the future, which requires us, as designers, to master all aspects of product knowledge. For the development and design of new products and the supporting and planning of existing products, he has accumulated certain experience and ability. He has personal opinions on the future development of the bathroom industry. He has a strong sense of innovation, cross-border integration, product planning and organizational capabilities.

This water tap stands as a true masterpiece, seamlessly blending cutting-edge design with artistic elegance. Its body features a distinctive faceted structure, with sharp lines and angular edges that exude a strong sense of modernity and technological sophistication. The faceted surfaces not only add depth and dimension but also create a captivating play of light, reflecting rays from every angle to produce a dazzling, one-of-a-kind sheen that instantly draws the eye.

The handle, delicately crafted to resemble a projection of light and shadow, adds a touch of finesse to the overall aesthetic. Its compact yet ergonomic shape ensures comfortable operation while infusing the space with a bold, stylish statement. Whether installed in a contemporary kitchen or a luxurious bathroom, this tap serves as a focal point, elevating the ambiance with its unique charm.

Constructed from premium materials, it guarantees durability and functionality. More than just a practical fixture, this water tap is a testament to exceptional craftsmanship, making it the perfect choice for those who seek to enhance their home's aesthetic appeal with a blend of art and innovation.
